The goal of Girls Circle is to design and foster strength and resiliency by connecting with other young women within your community/spaces by sharing different experiences and stories related to activities and topics chosen by the facilitator or circle members. These circles aim to build skills, challenge trends toward self-doubt, and to allow for a genuine and safe place to express yourselves verbally or creatively.